

Comedy Bio

Sarah Dawn (she/her) is an up-and-coming stand-up comedian and queer feminist archival scholar living in Kelowna, B.C. Her mix of dark humour and power poses will delight and surprise you, even though you just read about them here. Sarah has performed in Seattle, Montreal, Vancouver, and Toronto as well as being a fixture in the Kelowna Comedy scene. Notable performances include Pony6 Cabaret and Funny for a Girl Comedy Festival. When Sarah is not on stage, you can't find her. She's alone with her analog tapes, judging you.
